

Tempest Reports First Quarter 2022 Financial Results and Provides Corporate Highlights

May 13, 2022

- Announced oral presentation of TPST-1120 Phase 1 monotherapy and combination therapy data at ASCO
- Presented positive preclinical data for TPST-1495 at AACR
- Presented positive preclinical data with proprietary small molecule TREX1 inhibitors at AACR

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., May 13, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Tempest Therapeutics, Inc. (Nasdaq: TPST), a clinical-stage oncology company developing first-in-class¹ therapeutics that combine both targeted and immune-mediated mechanisms, today reported financial results for the quarter ended March 31, 2022 and provided a corporate update.

"The team continued to execute well throughout the first quarter of this year, enabling us to present the first clinical data from a Tempest program at the ASCO Annual Meeting in June," said Stephen R. Brady, chief executive officer of Tempest. "We look forward to the upcoming oral presentation, which will highlight the clinical profile and responses observed in the monotherapy and combination Phase 1 study of TPST-1120, our novel PPARα antagonist."

¹ If approved by the FDA

Recent Highlights

- TPST-1120 (clinical PPARα antagonist): (i) completed enrollment in the Phase 1 monotherapy and combination dose escalation arms; (ii) announced that the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) accepted for an oral presentation at its 2022 Annual Meeting an abstract containing the TPST-1120 Phase 1 monotherapy and combination data; and (iii) continued enrollment in first-line, randomized global Phase 1b/2 study in patients with hepatocellular carcinoma (HCC), under a collaboration with F. Hoffmann La Roche.
- TPST-1495 (clinical dual EP2/4 prostaglandin receptor antagonist): (i) continued enrollment in a Phase 1 study evaluating both monotherapy and combination (with anti-PD-1 checkpoint inhibitor, pembrolizumab) dose and schedule optimization arms, towards establishing an RP2D; (ii) presented preclinical data further differentiating TPST-1495 from other approaches targeting the prostaglandin E2 (PGE2) pathway at the American Association for Cancer Research (AACR) 2022 Annual Meeting; and (iii) announced that ASCO accepted for a poster presentation a "trials in progress" for the ongoing TPST-1495 Phase 1 clinical monotherapy and combination therapy clinical trial.
- TREX1 Inhibitor (preclinical tumor-selective STING pathway activator): presented the first data with proprietary targeted molecules demonstrating therapeutic benefit in tumor-bearing mice at the AACR 2022 Annual Meeting.

Planned Near-Term Milestones

- TPST-1120 (clinical PPARα antagonist): (i) first presentation of clinical data from a Tempest program at the oral presentation of the Phase 1 monotherapy and combination data at the ASCO 2022 Annual Meeting; and (ii) objective response data from the first 40 HCC patients in the first-line randomized study expected by year end or early 2023.
- TPST-1495 (clinical dual EP2/4 prostaglandin receptor antagonist): (i) selection of monotherapy RP2D expected in the first half of 2022; (ii) presentation of "trial in progress" poster at ASCO 2022 Annual Meeting; and (iii) data from Phase 1 monotherapy and combination dose and schedule optimization arms expected by year end or early 2023.
- TREX1 Inhibitor (preclinical tumor-selective STING pathway activator): planned selection of development candidate in the second half of 2022.

PIPE Financing

- On April 27, we announced a $15 million private investment in public equity (PIPE) financing to EcoR1 Capital, LLC and Versant Venture Capital.

Financial Results

First Quarter

- Tempest ended the first quarter of 2022 with $45.8 million in cash and cash equivalents, compared to $51.8 million at December 31, 2021. The decrease was primarily due to cash used in operations of $7.1 million offset by proceeds from sales under our ATM program of $1.4 million. Cash balance does not reflect $15 million raised in April from PIPE financing.
- Net cash used in operations for the quarter ended March 31, 2022 was $7.1 million compared to $6.3 million for the same period in 2021.
- Net loss and net loss per share for the quarter ended March 31, 2022 were $8.5 million and $1.18, respectively, compared to $5.4 million and $10.55, respectively, for the first quarter of 2021.
- Research and development expenses for the first quarter of 2022 were $5.1 million compared to $3.6 million for the same period in 2021. The $1.5 million increase was primarily attributable to expanded research and development efforts and increased fees for consulting services and compensation expenses.
- For the three months ended March 31, 2022, general and administrative expenses were $3.0 million compared to $1.5 million for the same period in 2021. The increase of $1.5 million was primarily due to higher professional and consulting fees, insurance, and compensation expenses.

About Tempest Therapeutics

Tempest Therapeutics is a clinical-stage oncology company advancing small molecules that combine both tumor-targeted and immune-mediated mechanisms with the potential to treat a wide range of tumors. The company's two novel clinical programs are TPST-1120 and TPST-1495, antagonists of PPAR α and EP2/EP4, respectively. Both TPST-1120 and TPST-1495 are advancing through Phase 1 clinical trials designed to study both agents as monotherapies and in combination with other approved agents. In collaboration with F. Hoffmann La Roche, TPST-1120 is also advancing in a randomized, global, Phase 1b/2 clinical study in combination with the standard-of-care regimen of atezolizumab and bevacizumab in the first-line treatment of patients with advanced or metastatic hepatocellular carcinoma. Tempest is also developing an orally-available inhibitor of TREX-1 designed to activate selectively the cGAS/STING pathway, an innate immune response pathway important for the development of anti-tumor immunity. Tempest is headquartered in South San Francisco. More information about Tempest can be found on the company's website at www.tempesttx.com.
